The most authentic, complete, and immersive football experience. FIFA delivers the stunning graphics, incredible gameplay features and immersive atmosphere that have made the series a global leader for over 25 years. X-rated X-rated Ultimate Team™ and new Street XI™ Ultimate Team mode The new Player Impact Engine and Player Intelligence system make for the most realistic and challenging online experience. Experience the ultimate authenticity and feel like never before - thanks to the addition of new Authentic Player Emotions, Shield Challenges and Interaction decisions. □ The more you play, the smarter FIFA becomes, and that makes your game feel more natural and more enjoyable. □ Players and Management. Thanks to the Player Intelligence engine and new AI-controlled players, online matches are even more challenging and authentic than in previous FIFA titles. The number of decisions facing managers has been doubled compared to the previous title, making your decisions even more impactful, and you can now follow dynamic training sessions and even analyse full matches live. Using the In Game Engine, the AI takes a wide variety of decisions during a match, and you can watch the game unfold from anywhere in the stadium. Break in to show individual player stats, highlight new abilities, progress, and stats, and use situational shooting from the unique crosshairs to score innovative goals. New Playmaker System. The new Playmaker System allows you to be fully involved in every tactical and strategic decision, as you select your tactics at any time by moving and rotating the ball around the pitch. In addition, the new playmaker is capable of playing the ball from any location on the pitch, so use different playmaking movements to change the play or even take players off the ball. New Dribbling System. The new dribbling system delivers authentic dribbling behaviours like gliding, jinking, reverse dribbling, acceleration and slowing down the play. New Passing, Shooting and Movement. The new passing, shooting and movement system is the key to a more complete and authentic football experience. The system has been designed to be the most realistic, including a one-to-one relationship between players, intelligent positioning of defenders and a highly detailed animation system.
